Argument for Dissolution of Company.

Washington, Jan. 16.—Declaring that the reorganization of the Standard Oil company of New Jersey in 1899 riveted together the control of the subsidiary companies in a way that had not existed before. Attorney General Wickersham today argued before the supreme court of the United States that the defense put up by the Standard Oil company against dissolution fell to the ground. It was the third day of the oral argument of the case, and Mr. Wickersham was called upon to close for the government. He did not conclude, but will complete his argument tomorrow, when John G. Johnson will finish the presentation of the entire case.

D. T. Watson of Pitisburg paved the way for Mr. Wickersham's remarks.
